Types of interest

Type of Interest	Description
Financial Interests	This is where an individual may get direct financial benefits from the consequences of a commissioning decision. This could, for example, include being: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A director, including a non-executive director, or senior employee in a private company or public limited company or other organisation which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with health or social care organisations;</li> <li>• A shareholder (or similar owner interests), a partner or owner of a private or not-for-profit company, business, partnership or consultancy which is doing, or which is likely, or possibly seeking to do, business with health or social care organisations.</li> <li>• A management consultant for a provider;</li> <li>• In secondary employment (see paragraph 56 to 57);</li> <li>• In receipt of secondary income from a provider;</li> <li>• In receipt of a grant from a provider;</li> <li>• In receipt of any payments (for example honoraria, one off payments, day allowances or travel or subsistence) from a provider</li> <li>• In receipt of research funding, including grants that may be received by the individual or any organisation in which they have an interest or role; and</li> <li>• Having a pension that is funded by a provider (where the value of this might be affected by the success or failure of the provider).</li> </ul>
Non-Financial Professional Interests	This is where an individual may obtain a non-financial professional benefit from the consequences of a commissioning decision, such as increasing their professional reputation or status or promoting their professional career. This may, for example, include situations where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An advocate for a particular group of patients;</li> <li>• A GP with special interests e.g., in dermatology, acupuncture etc.</li> <li>• A member of a particular specialist professional body (although routine GP membership of the RCGP, BMA or a medical defence organisation would not usually by itself amount to an interest which needed to be declared);</li> <li>• An advisor for Care Quality Commission (CQC) or National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE);</li> <li>• A medical researcher.</li> </ul>
Non-Financial Personal Interests	This is where an individual may benefit personally in ways which are not directly linked to their professional career and do not give rise to a direct financial benefit. This could include, for example, where the individual is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A voluntary sector champion for a provider;</li> <li>• A volunteer for a provider;</li> <li>• A member of a voluntary sector board or has any other position of authority in or connection with a voluntary sector organisation;</li> <li>• Suffering from a particular condition requiring individually funded treatment;</li> <li>• A member of a lobby or pressure groups with an interest in health.</li> </ul>
Indirect Interests	This is where an individual has a close association with an individual who has a financial interest, a non-financial professional interest or a non-financial personal interest in a commissioning decision (as those categories are described above). For example, this should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Spouse / partner;</li> <li>• Close relative e.g., parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling;</li> <li>• Close friend;</li> <li>• Business partner.</li> </ul>
The CCG expects staff who do any work for pharmaceutical companies to allow disclosure of any payments on the UK Disclosure database.
